Police to Get FM Radios for All Squad Cars

Albany Police will soon be "calling all cars" on their own radio system in accordance with a recent Federal Communications Commission ruling.

Councilman Bert Hill revealed that all police and fire equipment in this area will shortly switch to FM radio. This will mean independence for Albany from Berkeley's police radio. Under the new system operators of one police car will be able to talk with those in another car as well as two-way communication with the police station. The new set-up will not require any additional personnel in the local force.

Hill asked for a resolution authorizing purchase of the new equipment and advertising for bids. He estimated the change-over would cost "roughly $6000."

A request from Paul C. Bryan, superintendent of schools, that parking strips around the new MacGregor elementary school be paved with asphalt was referred to the Park Planning and Zoning Commission. Bryan said he favored asphalt paving over concrete as being less costly. He pointed out that parking strips at other local schools are paved with asphalt.

The council passed the first reading of an ordinance to restrict parking time in loading and passenger zones throughout the city. Commercial zones will be painted yellow and allow 30 minute parking time. Passenger zones will be white with a five minute parking limit. The ordinance requires that not more than one-half of any one block shall be zoned for loading.

City Attorney George Glavinovich said the parking ordinance was a "stop-gap" until he could prepare a new set of city ordinances. He estimated they would be ready for approval of Police Chief Stanley Williams and the council within three weeks.

Jim Peters Weds Lorraine Enge At St. Alban's

A reception at the Veterans Memorial Building in El Cerrito followed the wedding on Aug. 1 of James D. Peters of Albany and Lorraine Enge. They were wed at St. Alban's Episcopal Church where Dr. Randolph C. Miller read the service.

Lace from the wedding gown of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. D. Peters, formed a cap worn by the bride with her lace trimmed gown which was made with a long train. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried a prayer book to which two white orchids were attached. Bouvardia were knotted in the ribbon markers.

Mrs. Herman Enge, sister-in-law of the bride served as matron of honor while her brother George, Hans of Albany and Robert of Concord ushered with Robert Kranz and Gerald DeMaria of Albany.

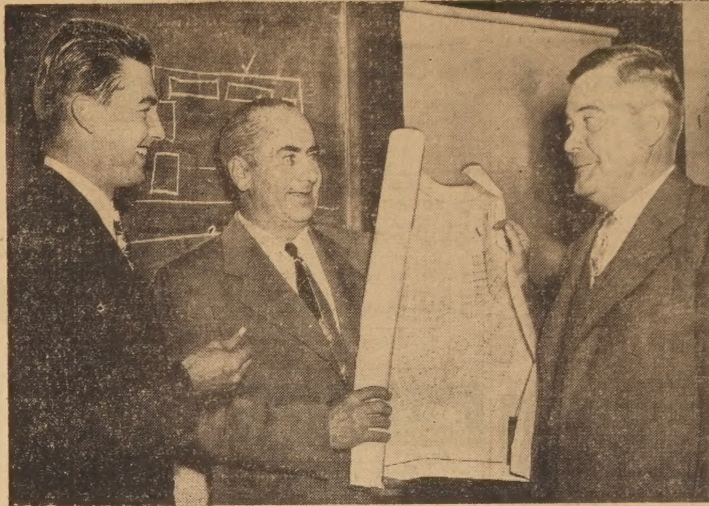

Pennie Enge, niece of the bride was flower girl and William Jackson carried the ring. The three bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Peters, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Robert Enge of Concord, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Gloria Lindstrom of Albany.

A graduate of Albany High School, James spent two years in the Navy. His bride is a Richmond High School graduate. They will live in Richmond where James is employed by the telephone company.

Rose Shoppe Fetes Fifth Anniversary

For the fifth anniversary of the Rose Shoppe at 1111 Solano Ave., Mrs. Dixie Rose has announced a sale offering many of the fine garments and accessories in this popular ladies' apparel shop at greatly reduced prices.

Featuring the latest in style and designs, the dresses, suits and accessories going on sale will afford Milady a chance to complete her fall wardrobe at great savings.

Draft Signup to Start Aug. 30 At High School

Albany High School has been designated as Selective Service registration center for all young men of this city between the ages of 18 through 25 for a period of Aug. 30 through Sept. 18. A proclamation from Gov. Earl Warren, issued Aug. 13, designated high schools throughout the state as registration centers to expedite the task of drafting a peacetime army.

Superintendent of Schools Paul C. Bryan has received directives from the State Selective Service director outlining the procedure to be followed. A chief registrar will be appointed and he in turn will name any assistants he may need. As during the war, all draft officials will work as volunteers. Civic, fraternal and veterans organizations will be called upon to provide workers during the registration period. Any man or woman who is a registered voter may serve as a registrar.

Exchangettes Will Go Rural for 'Frolic'

Jeans and cotton dresses will be the proper attire of the evening when the Albany Exchangettes hold their "Farmers Frolic" for members and guests on Aug. 21 at 8 p. m. The showrooms of Villa's Motors at 929 San Pablo Ave., will be turned into a rural scene for the evening.

A variety of modern and old time dancing is planned with a box supper to climax the evening. The ladies will bring a box lunch gaily tied in ribbon and the gentlemen will bring a dollar so they may lunch with the lady of their choice. A secret door prize is planned to give added enjoyment to the affair.

W. Berkeley Women

Members of the West Berkeley Women's Club will hold their business meeting Wednesday, Aug. 25 at headquarters, 10th and University Ave. President Doris Ramsey and her committee have arranged a salad luncheon. A whist party will complete the afternoon's entertainment.

Schmalenbergers Return From Lassen Honeymoon

A gold locket which once belonged to her bridegroom's great-great grandmother was "something old" for Maxine Miriam Littlefield when she became the bride of Herbert Arthur Schmalenberger on Aug. 4. Northbrae Community Church was the setting for the 8 p. m. nuptials read by Rev. Laurence L. Cross. A reception at the Berkeley Women's Club followed the ceremony.

The bride's traditional white satin wedding gown was made with a sweetheart neckline, low scalloped bodice and full skirt with a court train. She wore a full veil of French illusion caught in place with a beaded tiara and carried an old fashioned bouquet of white bride's roses and bouvardia.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Edward Schmalenberger,

Giant 49er Celebration Planned for Labor Day

A forty-niner camp, reminiscent of the days when gold was first discovered in California, will be established on Solano Ave., two blocks west of San Pablo. Two blocks of Solano will be roped off for street dancing, vaudeville acts and other exciting entertainment during the celebration. Store fronts and streets will "go western" with gala decorations to advertise the affair.

First Equipment From Dream House Funds at Children's Hospital

Equipping of the new wing of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay is under way this week as needed funds rolled in from ticket sales to Mr. Blandings' California Dream House in Chabot Park. The new wing is scheduled to officially open on October 15.

Preview of the huge Autoclave sterilizer just installed in the large central supply room was held for hospital officials and out-patients Sunday. The huge instrument which produces extremely high temperature through a steam under pressure system, is for the sterilization of trays, packs, dressings and other hospital aids.

The thousands of people who are daily passing through Mr. Blandings' Dream House at 11,000 Cameron Avenue in Chabot Park are helping to defray expenses of the new eighty bed wing, and at the same time are afforded the opportunity of viewing the most modern of the new California ranch style dream houses.

The second month opening of the home, suggested by the best selling novel, "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House," coincided with the Oakland opening of the motion picture starring Cary Grant and Myrna Loy which began Thursday, August 19 at the Fox Oakland and Grand Lake theaters.

Turner-Lindner Vows Exchanged at Aug. 7 Evening Ceremony

Lucky sevens were the keynote of the wedding of Pauline Lindner and D. Wayne Turner when they were married on Aug. 7 at 7 p. m. in the Grace Lutheran Church of El Cerrito. Rev. O. R. Janke officiated at the nuptials.

Given in marriage by her father, Arthur Lindner, the bride wore a gown of white satin. The dress was made with a lace collar, long court train with an apron effect on the skirt. A braid of satin held her veil of chantilly lace. She carried an arrangement of bouvardia, stephanotis and orchids.

Gloria Lindner served her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Theiss and Mrs. Joy Blagsvedt, both of Oakland.

All attendants wore gowns of lime green velvet with three-quarter length sleeves and straight skirts. They wore bands of the same green velvet for headresses, and the two bridesmaids carried showers of red begonias. Miss Lindner carried a long bouquet of white begonias.

Little Miss Sandra Stubbs, niece of the benedict, was the flower girl. She was gown in white brocade satin with a miniature bouquet of red begonias, and a matching bandeau for her hair.

The groom chose Bob Turner of Oakland as his best man and the ushering duties were handled by Robert B. Stubbs and Manfred Blagsvedt, both of Oakland. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, 1257 Portland Ave. After a honeymoon in the Pacific Northwest and Canada the newlyweds will make their home in the Bay area.

The bride is the daughter of the Arthur Lindners and is a graduate of Concordia College. Her husband is the son of J. B. Turner of Oakland and Mrs. Sara D. Turner of Buena Vista Ave., Oakland.
